Edward Evansen
Lynx System Developers Inc.

Dear Ed—

This note is to once again send our appreciation of your efforts around the inaugural Nike Team Nationals. The system your staff created was one of the highlights that made NTN “the event of 2004—including the Olympics.” according to Craig Masback, CEO of USA Track & Field.

We were not only enormously pleased with the final product, but the service Lynx System Developers provided throughout the entire development cycle was outstanding.

We look forward to working with Lynx on future Nike Team Nationals as well as any other timing projects/challenges we come up with.

Regards,
